

Williams Baptist College
2016 Ozarka College Presidential Scholarship

Application due July 21, 2016

Summary

The Ozarka College Presidential Scholarship is a full-tuition scholarship ($8,100) per semester to be awarded to an Ozarka College student who transfers to Williams Baptist College. Recipients are chosen by the President of Ozarka College, Dr. Richard Dawe. The scholarship is renewable for four semesters ($8,100 per semester) by enrolling in 12 credit hours and maintaining a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0.

Eligibility

- The student must be a new applicant to Williams Baptist College (i.e., not previously a part of the fall 2016 application process).
- The student must meet all the admissions standards outlined below. (Cost of fees, semi-private room and board may be covered through a combination of federal, state, and private scholarships and personal funds.)
- The student must live in a Williams Baptist College residence hall on campus.

Admissions Standards

- Preference will be given to a student who will transfer an Associate Degree from Ozarka College.
- The student may be considered, however, if s/he has completed 48 or more credit hours of acceptable undergraduate coursework.
- The student must have a college cumulative GPA of at least a 2.0
